

BAL – HONEY COMPETING AT 60th BERLIN FILM FESTIVAL

BAL – HONEY, the third and last film in Yusuf Trilogy by Semih Kaplanoğlu is selected for the official competition at 60th Berlin Film Festival.

The film takes us to Yusuf's childhood, the first stage in his life where we meet his father Yakup, a black-hive honey gatherer.

The main characters are played by Bora Atas, a seven-year-old who made his acting debut in this film, Erdal Besikcioglu and Tülin Özen.

BAL – HONEY is realized as a Turkish-German co-production. The film, which was supported by NRW, ZDF/ ARTE and Eurimages was shot at Rize's Camlihemsin.

SCORSESE and POLANSKI at 60th BERLINALE

The jury of Berlinale, which will celebrate its 60th year will be headed by Werner Herzog.

The films announced as in the official selection include Roman Polanski's last film "The Ghost Writer".

“Shutter Island” by Martin Scorsese is among the films to make its world premiere at Berlin although not in the competition.

“YUMURTA”, the first film in “Yusuf Trilogy” made its world premiere in 60th Cannes Film Festival and garnered many national and international awards.

MILK IN THEATERS ON 14th JANUARY IN GERMANY

SÜT – MILK which made its world premiere in 65th Venice Film Festival will be released on 14th of January at 11 cities across Germany with fourteen prints.

For more information:

www.kaplanfilm.com